

EAMS Plan for Relocation of classes:

6T – Home Ec Lab

7DV – Library

7D – Music Room

7B – Gym

7J – Gym

7R – 6T classroom

The procedure:

- All non-essential items are being removed from classrooms including personal items.
- Thursday, November 5th, at the end of the day, Bert (7DV) will have his class move their desks to the outside of the Library in preparation for moving locations.
- On Thursday, the night crew will remove the furniture from the library into Bert's room for storage and over flow.
- Friday morning the tarps will be set down in the gym to cover the floor.
- Friday during the day, Adam (7B) and Brett's (7J) class can move their desks to the gym. Brett on the north side of the curtain and Adam on the south side of the curtain. Once Adam (7B) and Brett (7J) are out of their classrooms, Steven (Band/Music) and Ed (Guitar/Music) can move their music/band supplies into vacant Grade 7 classrooms.
- Once Steven and Ed are done their move, Brooke (7D) can move her class into the music room.
- Colin (6T) will be moving into the Home Ec lab once it is cleared out. Until this happens, Colin's class will be splitting with half of the students working in the Home Ec lab with Cullen Y.
- Once Colin is out of his classroom, Taylor (7R) will be moving from the power mech to that classroom.

Notes:

- All Phys Ed classes will be held outdoors, students are advised to dress accordingly. If the weather is severe, Phys Ed classes (modified) will be held in classrooms.
- Art can remain to be taught in the new cohort rooms.
- Grade 5 & 6 music will be taught in homerooms/cohorts.
- Band and Guitar will be using Adam, Brett and Brookes vacant classrooms to maintain 2 m physical distancing. No wind instruments.
- The library will be used as a classroom; therefore, all library classes and access are suspended. Susan (librarian) will move from class to class with books during your scheduled library period.
- Grade 7 cohorts located in the gym will use the side gym doors as their cohort entrance and exit at breaks and lunch.
