

File FI

FACILITIES RENOVATIONS

Major renovations to school facilities come under the same general procedures as the planning for facility construction. (See FB - FG)

The Public Schools Finance Branch will determine if a particular project falls under the heading of major renovation. Major renovations are usually considered to be those that affect several instructional spaces. They consist of projects that involve a combination of structural, mechanical, and instructional factors, and that affect a significant portion of the school building.