

STUDENT CONDUCT

The Board expects student conduct to be such as to contribute to a productive learning climate.

The Board endorses the following principles for student conduct:

- Respect for the rights of others shall be expected of all students.
- Respect for the law, Board policies, administrative and school regulations, and those given the authority to administer them, shall be required of all students.
- Respect for school and personal property, pride in one's work, achievement within the range of one's ability, and exemplary personal standards of courtesy, decency, and honesty shall be maintained.
- Respect for individual worth, to the end that every student shall be assisted to develop his/her full potential, is an obligation of the School Division. Diligence and a sincere desire to profit from the opportunities offered is an obligation of the student.
- Further, as the conduct of students outside the school reflects the attitude and philosophy of the school, the Board expects each student to show common courtesy and proper sense in dealings with the public at large.

Students have a responsibility to know and respect the regulations of the school. Toward this end students shall receive annually, at the opening of school, a publication listing the regulations to which they are subject. These regulations are to be developed cooperatively by the school staff, and file with the Board for information.
